Dear Mr. Feher,

During Etuce conference last summer, you told us about the situation in Hungary for trade unions. You told us about persecutions against gay people and your fight for human and civil rights, and equality between men and women. You said Hungary is now like a dictatorship because human and civil rights are threatened.

We want to express our support to your trade union, to all the men and women engaged within your organisation to defend democracy, human and civil rights in Hungary. As a French trade union gathering workers in Public Education (from schools to universities) and public research, Sgen-CFDT is member of ETUCE. This membership is not only an opportunity to have debates with european colleagues, but also a commitment to solidarity between us. We are concerned by the attacks on human and civil rights you deal with in your country. We are concerned by deprivation of the right to demonstraitre, of the right for one to love whoever one wants.

Sgen-CFDT shares with you the commitment to fight for human and civil rights, for workers'right for they are the foundation of democracy.

On behalf of all our members, I can assure you of our support in these moments.

Best regards

Catherine Nave-Bekhti
General secretary of Sgen-CFDT
